Union Credit Bank Recognizes Local Student Talent Community Bank to Host Sustainability Essay Contest with Southside Elementary Museums Magnet School

WHAT: Union Credit Bank, a Miami-based community bank who recently joined a U.N. program that commits banks to environmental principles, will promote awareness about environmental protection and sustainability by hosting an essay contest for local third through fifth grade students at Southside Elementary Museums Magnet School. Fernando Capablanca, president and CEO of Union Credit Bank, will judge short essays written by students about what it means to protect the environment.

The winner of the contest will receive a monetary prize and a savings account will be opened in his or her name as well as the essay will be published on the bank's Web site. In addition, the winning student will present his or her ideas about sustainability and environment protection at an upcoming Union Credit Bank board meeting.

WHEN: Thursday, April 26

WHERE: Union Credit Bank
1150 South Miami Avenue
Miami

WHO: Union Credit Bank (UCB) is a full-service commercial bank that offers a full range of financial products and services, including home and business loans, commercial real estate and commercial non-real estate loans, small business loans, trade financing products, financial planning and financial advisory services.
