Union Credit Bank to Host Fundraiser for Teens Team Up Against Cancer

WHAT: Union Credit Bank will host a fundraiser organized by Teens Team Up Against Cancer (TTAC) benefitting The Children's Cancer Caring Center, Inc. (CCCC). The TTAC was originally founded in March 2005 as a community service project by seven teenagers: Sofia Escasena, Luis Martinez, Kristin McAlpin, Hillary Miller, Nino Rishmague, Sabrina Rishmague and Bryce Zimmer. Their mission is to bring awareness to the community of the various needs relating to cancer issues.

This is the 4th annual art exhibition and fundraiser. Last year's event raised an excess of $146,000. The TTAC hopes this year's event will be as or more successful with the hope of donating as much as possible to the CCCC. This is the only free treatment center for children with cancer in the southeastern U.S. where thousands of young victims have had their lives extended and saved over the past 42 years.

The fundraiser will include an art auction and fine jewelry sale.
